

Attention Colusa Residents

DO YOU HAVE ELM TREES OR HACKBERRY TREES IN YOUR BACKYARD?

The City of Colusa is currently addressing a pest issue that affects these tree species. In order to protect the health of our community's trees, we need your help!

If you have Elm or Hackberry trees on your property, please contact us.

We want to ensure that the necessary remedies are provided to keep these trees healthy and thriving. Your participation is important—by working together, we can prevent the spread of pests and protect our beautiful tree canopy.
