New Rules for Home-Based Businesses & Sidewalk Vendors

Effective 2026

Applications for both the Home Occupation Permit and the Sidewalk Vending Permit will be available beginning January 2026. This announcement is being shared now to provide early awareness and allow all current and future business owners time to review the new requirements, plan ahead, and prepare for compliance. No action is required until applications open in January, but business owners are strongly encouraged to begin gathering necessary documents and reviewing the updated standards.

HOME-BASED BUSINESSES

If you currently operate a home-based business, you must:

- ✓ Apply for a Home Occupation Permit
- ✓ Pay the one-time $150 permit fee
- ✓ Obtain a City Business License
- ✓ Sign a compliance statement

All existing home-based businesses must comply by Feb. 2, 2026.

SIDEWALK VENDORS

If you currently sell food or goods from a cart, you must:

- ✓ Apply for a Sidewalk Vending Permit
- ✓ Obtain required existing permits (no new City vending fee):
  - ✓ City Business License
  - ✓ County Health Permit (food)
  - ✓ California Seller's Permit
- ✓ Ensure your cart meets new size, safety & ADA rules
- ✓ Follow new location & cleanup requirements
